Footnotes:

^{1/} The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.

^{2/} The recipient of a late in-kind contribution must file a late contribution report within 48 hours from the time the in-kind contribution is received.

^{3/} Extended Deadline: Because the January 31, 2010 filing deadline falls on Sunday, this filing deadline is extended to February 1.

- Major Donor, Independent Expenditure or General Purpose Recipient Committees making contributions or independent expenditures in connection with this election should contact the FPPC for reporting requirements.

Ballot measure committees should refer to the FPPC Campaign Disclosure Manual 3 and campaign information fact sheets posted on the FPPC website at www.fppc.ca.gov.

Additional Notes:

- Prior to the semi-annual period in which the measure(s) supported or opposed is being voted on, committees must file quarterly campaign statements in addition to semi-annual statements. Following the election, quarterly statements may also be required. Contact the FPPC for specific information.
- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- Local jurisdictions may impose contribution limits and additional filing requirements.
- State committees making contributions or independent expenditures in connection with local elections should contact the FPPC for reporting requirements.
