

Name: _____ Date: _____

CORE Quiz

1. How far away should the family “out of area” contact be located?

2. When should the gas be turned off at your house?

3. How often does CORE suggest that the batteries be changes in your smoke detector and carbon monoxide detector?

4. How much water should be kept on hand for emergencies?

5. What emergency does “Drop, Cover & Hold” refer to?

6. What is the purpose of a Tabletop Exercise?

7. Name three kinds of supplies or equipment that should be in your Neighborhood Incident Command Center.

8. Name three primary responsibilities of the Communications Response Team.

9. Name the primary responsibility of the Damage Assessment Response Team.

10. What is the primary responsibility of the Search & Rescue Response Team?

11. What does "X" taped across a door signify?

12. What three elements are required for a fire to occur?

13. Give two examples of a "no go" situation you might encounter while "sizing up" a structure.

14. What is the primary goal of Disaster First Aid?

15. What is meant by the term "triage"?

16. If you are in bed when an earthquake occurs, what should you do?

17. If your neighborhood does not have working two-way radios, what is the primary method of communication?

18. Name three things you must consider while "sizing up" a situation.

19. Name three safety guidelines of Search & Rescue.

20. Name two strategies to maintain response team well being.
