

Oakland Hills Meeting Citywide Zoning Update

When: Wednesday, June 17, 2009
6:30 to 8:30 pm

Where: Skyline Community Church
12540 Skyline Boulevard

The City is updating its zoning regulations, which govern the physical development of land. Zoning regulations affect many people living and working in Oakland. We urge you to become familiar with the zoning update process and get involved.

Please join us at our community meeting to discuss zoning issues in the Oakland hills.

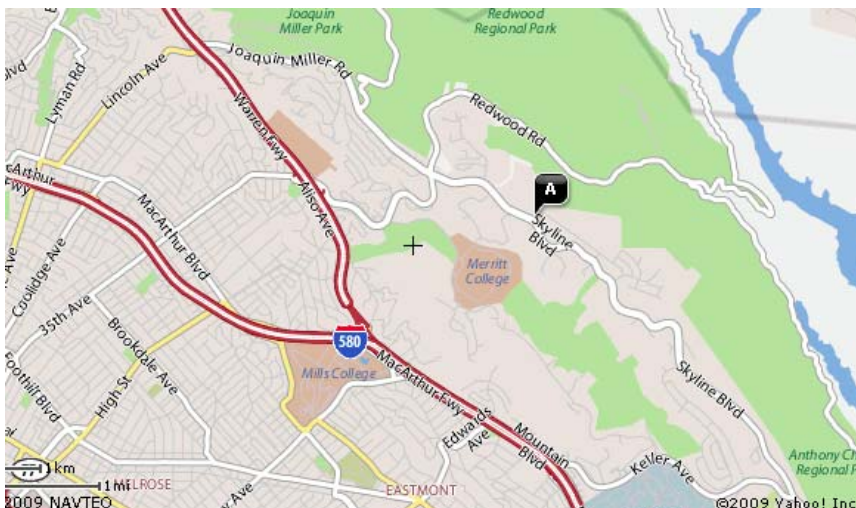

The meeting will cover:

- ◆ The Citywide Zoning Update
 - ◇ where we are in the process
 - ◇ approach to updating the hillside residential zones
- ◆ Background on existing hillside development standards
- ◆ Hillside preliminary zoning outline options
- ◆ Issues with existing zoning in the Oakland hills and potential options to consider

The purpose of the meeting is to familiarize you with the issues and zoning in the Oakland hills as well as to obtain input about additional issues with development in the hills, and the preliminary zoning outline for the Oakland hills.

We hope you can attend the meeting.
