

Community Workshop Citywide Zoning Update

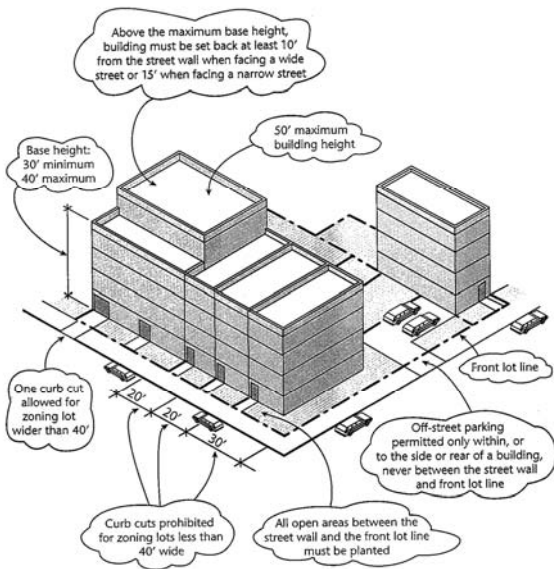

The City of Oakland is updating its zoning regulations, which govern the physical development of land. Zoning regulations affect many people living and working in Oakland.

We urge you to become familiar with the zoning update process and get involved.

Example of Residential Zoning Regulations

Example of Commercial Zoning Regulations

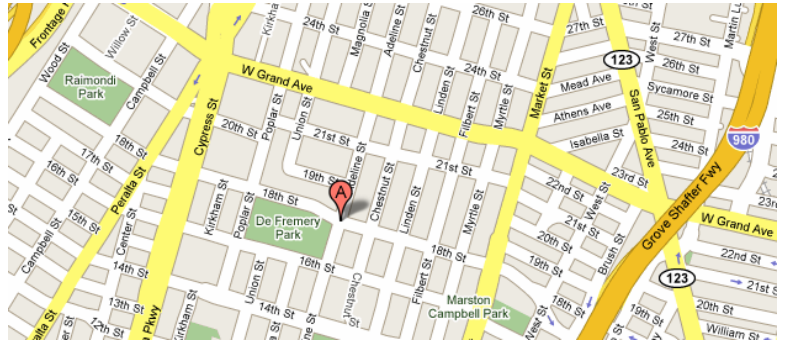

Please join us at one of our two interactive workshops to discuss zoning issues in the City's commercial corridors and residential areas. The same meeting is being held at two different locations and times:
